

All Roads Lead to Texas!

TAMP Annual Convention & Marketplace

September 9-11, 2010 • Hilton Austin Hotel

Texas Association of Mortgage Professionals

Registration Information

TAMP Welcomes You to Join Us for the 2010 Annual Convention and Marketplace!

The Texas Association of Mortgage Professionals invites you to our 2010 Annual Convention & Marketplace. We are perhaps facing the greatest challenge in the history of our industry. Mortgage originators and mortgage professionals are being attacked on all fronts, both at the federal and state levels. The current economic times make this convention one of the most important events you will attend all year.

This year's convention features a full day of education focused on assisting you through turbulent times. Not only will you reconnect with colleagues and business associates, but you will also receive the tools, tips and timely education to help you keep and grow your business. Current legal issues, regulatory changes and other challenges impacting your business will be presented and discussed.

Networking has never been more important, and your TAMP Convention & Marketplace is THE place to be to expand your business connections. You will have many opportunities to network with your fellow originators and mortgage industry professionals. Find out...What's going on in the industry? Who are the major lenders? What are the latest updates? Where is the industry headed?

Your convention would not be complete without an opportunity to reconnect and have fun with friends and colleagues. Friday evening's party will be packed with lots of fun, food, drink, and dancing. No speeches or business — just high-energy fun! Please remember to RSVP in advance for this event!

Never before has attending YOUR convention been so important. Please join us in Austin — we'd love to see you there!
